

PROFILE

My interest in wine began on a tour in Bordeaux during a personal tour I had by the owner and winemaker at Vignobles Boissonneau in Entre-deux-Mers. He introduced me to the beauty, passion, and dedication needed to make a great wine. Since that time, I have dived all in to the wine industry. First by selling wine in America, then by studying the industry in France, and now I am looking to continue my career at one of the great wineries of the world.
